RedHawk's Evacuation Plan

Be prepared for the next time disaster strikes. The key to coping with disasters is by planning ahead; you can protect yourself and family. Hold meetings with your family to prepare an emergency plan. Keep the plan where everyone can see it. For additional information about how to prepare for hazards in your community, contact Redhawk Survival Institute

Inform Yourself Contact:

1. Call Your Emergency Management Office, Red Cross, & Redhawk survival Institute for information and Survival kits
2. Find out which disasters could occur in your area.
3. Learn your community's evacuation routes and shelters.
4. Ask about special assistance for elderly or disabled persons.
5. Ask your workplace about emergency plans.
6. Ask about your children's school or day care center's emergency plan.

Create A Home Emergency Plan:

1. Meet with household members. Discuss with children the types of emergencies such as fire, severe weather, earthquakes...
2. Discuss what to do about power outages and personal injuries.
3. Know how to turn off the utilities at main switches ei; gas, hydro
4. Post emergency telephone #'s.
5. Teach children how and when to call 911, police, and fire.
6. Instruct household members to turn on the radio for emergency information.
7. Pick one out-of-town friend or relative to call if separated by disaster (it is often easier to call out-of-town than within the affected area).
8. Teach children how to make long distance telephone calls.
9. Pick two meeting places.
 - At home or near home in case of a fire.
 - A place outside your neighbourhood in case you cannot return home after a disaster. Take a Basic First Aid and CPR Class.
 - Practice family fire drill and evacuation plans
 - Practice STOP, DROP & ROLL (should clothes catch on fire)

Guidelines For Pets:

1. Gathering pet supplies.
2. Ensuring your pet has proper ID and up-to-date veterinarian records.
3. Providing a pet carrier and leash
